VoiceBox Scribe

The AI tool that transforms patient consults into medical documents

Are you a busy doctor bogged down by paperwork? VoiceBox Scribe is the AI-powered medical assistant that can capture your consults in real-time and turn them into structured clinical documents – helping to free up your time so you can focus on patient care.

Convenient

Scribe works silently in the background – no typing or dictation needed.

Efficient

Want your letters to be sent securely by SMD, fax or email? Let Scribe handle it.

Secure

Scribe has medical-grade privacy, security and compliance protocols in place for your protection.

Customisable

Quickly create medical certificates, clinical notes and referral letters – or customise to create other documents.

Integrated

You can sync Scribe with your appointment book and your dictation list will be ready when you are. It can even file documents in your patient records.

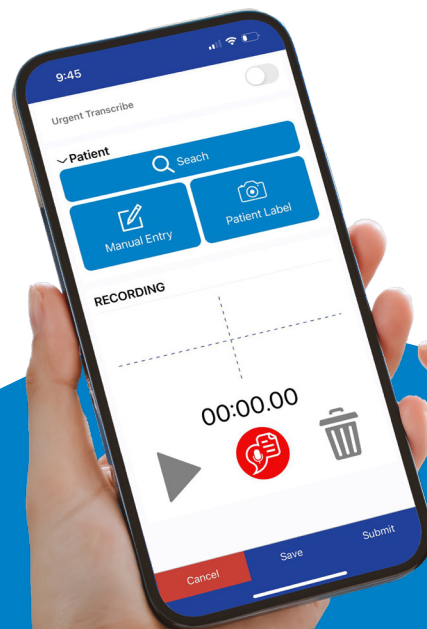

More time, less typing

Fully compliant & secure

Easy to use and scalable
